

	100	200	300	400	500	1000
countries	It is Santa's home. Finland	It is known for its boot-like shape. Italy	It is known as the country of tulips. Holland	It hosted the first Olympic Games. Greece	It hosts the only horologe in the world with accurate solar time. Slovakia	It was the home of the Byzantine Empire. Turkey
capitals	It is referred to as "the City of Light". Paris	It is known as the City of Music. Vienna	The de facto capital of the EU. Brussels	It is known as Superbissima— Most Proud? Valletta	The literary translation is "[area] under the hill" Podgorica	The largest city of the Republic of Macedonia. Skopje
languages	Latin language also spoken in Brazil. Portuguese	It is an Indo-European language and the official language of Slovenia. Slovene/ Slovenian	What is the official language of Iceland? Icelandic	It is the most spoken language in Europe. English	West Germanic language spoken in the Netherlands and Belgium. Dutch	Another name for this language is Magyar. Hungarian
people	He invented dynamite. Alfred Nobel	He developed the theory of relativity. Albert Einstein	She discovered radiation. Marie Curie	The true Father of the Electric Age. Nikola Tesla	He is considered to be the Father of Modern Medicine. Hippocrates	He is considered the Father of Modern Education. John Amos Comenius
buildings	The largest Gothic cathedral in the world. Seville Cathedral	Known as the castle of Count Dracula. Bran Castle	Ireland's oldest university. Trinity College	The tallest building in the UK. the Shard	The tallest skyscraper in the Baltic States. the Europa Tower	The largest library in the Nordic countries. Royal library